

Pregnant, Breastfeeding and Lactation Student Information

ABSENCES & MAKING UP MISSED WORK

Students absent for medically necessary reasons related to pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding are allowed to return to the same academic status as before the absences and be allowed to make up missed work, including any missed participation-related points, as long as the student's doctor deems the absence medically necessary.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Reasonable accommodations are available to students who are pregnant or breastfeeding. These may include:

- 🌲 Additional or longer breaks
- 🌲 Temporary modification to workplace
- 🌲 Extension for assignments
- 🌲 Excused absences to express breast milk
- 🌲 Reasonable space to express breast milk

PARENTING ROOM

Space is available on the PTCC campus for students, staff, and faculty to breastfeed or pump milk in a private clean location.

Please book this room for your parenting needs through our bookings page. Scan the QR code to schedule the wellness room today.

RESOURCES AVAILABLE

Additional resources are available through our Basic Needs page, or by contacting Parenting Navigator, Reneé Nañez at Renee.Nanez@pine.edu or 320.629.4583.

ACCOMMODATION PLANS

This plan can be worked individually with your instructor for course competition for making up missed work.

Contact a Title IX staff to facilitate the conversation and plan implementation.

Student and Faculty should develop a plan and forward it to the Title IX staff for review.

Title IX Pregnant and Parenting Deputy:
Kevynn Schumacher.
Contact at Kevynn.Schumacher@pine.edu or 320.629.4537

TitleIX@pine.edu is an alternative email.

For additional support contact the PTCC Accessibility office at Robin.Johnson@pine.edu

Scan the QR code for more
PTCC TitleIX
information.

