COMPANY NAME

Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe , Onamia, MN

DESCRIPTION

The Medical Provider delivers comprehensive primary and secondary outpatient healthcare services, including preventive, diagnostic, curative, rehabilitative, and educational care. Responsibilities include examining and diagnosing patients, prescribing treatments, conducting routine health screenings, administering immunizations, and promoting disease prevention and overall wellness. The provider coordinates patient care, arranges hospital admissions and specialist referrals, maintains accurate medical records, and collaborates with healthcare staff to ensure high-quality, coordinated care. Additional duties include supporting Tribal Health programs, consulting with mid-level providers, providing services at satellite clinics, and connecting patients with community resources when needed. The role requires strong clinical judgment, effective communication, teamwork, and the ability to manage confidential information. Work is primarily conducted in a clinical setting, with occasional local and limited out-of-state travel. Employment is contingent upon passing a background check and drug and alcohol screening. Native American preference applies.
