COMPANY NAME

Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe , Onamia, MN

DESCRIPTION

The Home Visitor position within the Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe HHS Public Health program provides in-home support to families participating in the Maternal and Child Health Project. The role focuses on improving parenting skills, supporting healthy pregnancies, and promoting early childhood development through direct home visits and individualized services. Home Visitors assist with parenting education, child behavior management, family structure development, and guided parent-child interaction activities. They also conduct intake assessments, provide advocacy, and connect families with appropriate community resources and referrals. The position requires managing a caseload and collaborating with other Home Visitors, supervisors, and external agencies to expand access to services. Strong communication, organizational skills, and familiarity with parenting education and cultural practices are essential. The role involves flexibility, moderate stress, and a mix of office and in-home work settings. Candidates must have a valid driver's license, be insurable, and pass required background and drug screening. Experience in home visiting or case management is strongly preferred.
